It even comes down to deciding whether or not to become one (at least your first two or three positions with the government), or whether to give up your medical career and go into other professional fields, like law or business.. The second category is related to looting. It is mostly made up of NPC loot containers, quest junk, or the items you need from a weapon or armor set. NPC loot containers are more common than quest loot containers, or perhaps you are a big slayer crafter. Even with the proper gear, these containers can be fairly difficult to obtain for crafting. Many quests may ask you to find a specific NPC loot container. Make sure you're in control of your inventory just in case you run out.
